

THE DOTHAN EAGLE

—DAILY EDITION—

VOLUME 1.

DOTHAN, ALABAMA, MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 28, 1908.

NUMBER 80.

CUTTING SCRAPE.

A difficulty arose Christmas day between Sim Brown and Haley Sewell, both white men, near Slocomb's old still place, seven miles south of Dothan, in which Sewell received a gash across the throat, severing his wind pipe.

At last accounts the wounded man was still alive and the attending physician states that if his patient lives a few days longer, he will likely recover, although several stitches were required to bring the several parts together.

We did not learn the cause of the trouble, but it is stated the differences began at Madrid the day before, and was renewed when the parties met again next day.

KNIGHTS' TEMPLAR SERVICES.

Dothan Commandery No. 25 K. T., held its Christmas exercises in the asylum of the temple, at eleven o'clock Christmas day, and a very pretty and impressive ceremony was carried out.

The ladies of the Episcopal Church will have for sale on New Year's day, beautiful holly wreaths and crowns, suitable to place on graves of loved ones. Phone your order to Culver & Harris, or give to Mr. C. E. Walker at Library.

FOX HUNT.

Messrs. Tom Espy and Tom Whatley, of Dothan, and W. E. McEachern, with several others from Gordon, left this morning over the St. Andrews road, with sixteen dogs, to spend a day or so hunting "Bro. Fox," in the neighborhood of Fountain, Fla.

Tom Espy can get more real sport chasing one fox than most men can get out of an entire Christmas season.

Mr. Ben Pileher began laying brick again to day on his theatre building, after having stopped work for several weeks, for lack of material. Mr. Pileher says he will finish up and have his store rooms completed and ready for occupancy in a few weeks, but that it will take several months to complete to theatre portion of the building.

MARRIED.

On December 24th, Grady Hughes and Miss Cora Webb, of Webb, were married.

Mr. H. D. Byrd is in the city to day from Birmingham, having come down here after a convict who was turned over to his company instead of to Blocton, with the others of the Enterprise Lumber Co. gang which left yesterday.

NOT OURS.

One paper hands us the following:

"The Christmas edition of the Dothan Eagle came to our desk Saturday morning, and we spent a very pleasant and profitable half hour looking over it. As an historical effort, it deserves some credit, but as a repository of interesting statistics and important data, it deserves more, while the various half-tone illustrations serve to enliven its pages and add much to its attractiveness. It has a multi color cover, and is something for Dothan to be proud of."

All of which is thankfully received, and we pass it along to the Siftings, where the compliment of the Free Press belongs, for we have gotten out no Christmas edition, but the Siftings did.

CONVICTS LEAVE.

The state convicts, who had been leased to the Enterprise Lumber Co. in this city, for the past two years, left yesterday for Blocton, Ala., the lease of the Lumber Company having expired.

There were only about thirty in the bunch, although the lease called for fifty men; but the full number generally fell short, during the tenure of the lease, on account of paroles, transfers and so forth. The three men who escaped last week from the camps here are still at large.

AN INTERESTING ANNOUNCEMENT.

"Mr. and Mrs. J. Washington Deason invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Francis Bell, to Mr. Russell Porter Coleman, on Thursday afternoon, the thirty-first of December, one thousand nine hundred and eight, at one-thirty o'clock, Baptist church, Northport, Alabama."

The above invitations are being sent to out of town friends, none being sent in Tuscaloosa and Northport, as is usual here. The announcement will be received with the greatest interest, for both the prospective bride and groom have many friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. "Wash" Deason, a widely-known and extremely popular citizen. She is in her own right a lovely young woman. She is personally extremely attractive, her coloring being especially charming. She is just as sweet and charming in disposition as she is pretty, and that is saying a good deal. She is a very talented young woman, possessed of unusual mentality and is greatly admired by all who know her. Her friends on both sides of the river are going to miss her considerably, but they will extend the heartiest congratulations to this fortunate man who is to win her.

Mr. Coleman is an old University man who has many friends over the state. It will be remembered that he won while at college here the Southern Intercollegiate oratory prize. He taught for a time but has been for some while a very successful lawyer at Dothan. He is a gentleman of character and ability and is making a reputation as rapidly as his section.

RELIEVED THE SUFFERING.

The men's prayer meeting of Dothan looked up the needy before Christmas, and went to work putting something to eat in homes that had nothing. They went to considerable trouble to find out where they could do the most to relieve the suffering, and they did it. They, like the Elks, bought such stuff as was needed to satisfy the Christmas appetite. One who hasn't ever been over the town and made inquiries would naturally think that nearly everybody here had plenty to eat, but this is not the case. There were many families that were suffering. One house they visited found a woman with a child sick with fever. She was not able to work, not able to pay the doctor and had summoned none. She had other children that had not had enough clothes to keep them warm, and not enough provisions to give them a square meal, and her husband was in jail. They left enough to relieve her wants and had a doctor to call and see the child.

John Flowers, who drove one of the delivery wagons all day Christmas Eve, thinks they did a good work in relieving the needy, but thinks another committee, which might be called the "barrel-stave committee," could do good work in looking after the supposed head of the family. In some instances, the husband, or breadwinner, is able to make a living, and does it, but contributes but little to the support of the family, and in such instances, the "barrel-stave committee" could leave impressions that would do good.

O. J. Newton called in last week and left his kind remembrance with the paper. He came down to spend the holidays with home folks. He is living in Birmingham, and holds a responsible position with the freight department of one of the railroads.

THE JOHN H. SPARKS' SHOWS.

Will Exhibit at Dothan, Afternoon and Night, December 31st.

The excellent reputation left by the Sparks' shows on former visits to Dothan would alone insure liberal patronage this time, but the lusty growth and vast improvements in the show since its last visit will make it more attractive than ever. Sparks' is a man of energy and enterprise, wide experience and ample capital and he has brought all this to bear in making his show superior to all other similar exhibitions. He has a brand new train of cars built especially for him, all new gorgeous cages, dens, costly trappings, etc. He has engaged the best talent big salaries can procure. He has expended over $40,000 in increased equipment. Every effort has been made regardless of cost to make his show satisfying to his pride and advanced ideas. That he has succeeded is amply proven by the way the newspapers speak of his exhibition wherever he has appeared. It is the universal verdict that he has now the most splendid, complete and high class exhibition of the kind in America.

Everyone should come to town in time to see the gorgeous street parade at noon, and then follow the crowd to the show grounds and witness the big free exhibition.

MARRIED.

We learn that Miss Kate Hutchinson, who is well known in Dothan, was married at Ozark on Christmas day, to Mr. Will Hood, of Abbeville, Ala.

Miss Hutchinson is the sister of Mrs. Charley Blaum and has many friends who feel an interest in her and wish for her a happy married life.

FRANK NEWTON DEAD.

Mr. Frank Newton died at his home about three miles east of the city, yesterday, of bright's disease.

Mr. Newton was about 36 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children. The burial took place this evening at two o'clock, at Rocky Branch church.

Mrs. Newton's death was not unexpected, for his health failed him about a year ago.

We extend sympathy to his family in their hour of mourning, in the loss of husband and father.

G. B. Harris, one of the white trusty convicts who has been seen every day on the streets of Dothan for a year past, received a parole Christmas day, from Gov. Comer, allowing the convict to spend the time with his mother, who lives in Birmingham.

Harris was sent up from Jefferson six years ago for murder, his whole time being twelve and a half years. Harris is a sufferer from that awful disease asthma, and is little fit to do manual labor. He killed a man in a Birmingham barroom during a drunken brawl. The friends of Harris are endeavoring to get a pardon for him, claiming that his punishment has been sufficient to meet the ends of justice.

Man Says He Will Inherit Half Million, But Goes to Work.

Los Angeles, Cal. Dec. 27.—Heir to half a million dollars and entitled to a position in Baltimore society, William Jefferson Powell has been sentenced to serve 180 days in the city workhouse on a charge of vagrancy.

Powell is refined and well educated and says he will come into possession of his fortune at the age of 25 years.

Dear Friends:

The "OLD SHIP OF TIME" has again entered the "PORT OF BEST WISHES AND GOOD CHEER". If the voyage has been stormy and dangerous—forget it, and think of the many bright and happy days that you have enjoyed during the past year's trip.

Before launching out on the "SEA OF 1909" allow me to extend to you my CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S GREETING. It has no value in the market and no great art in it's making. But, if you will let it mean to your heart what it means to mine at this GLAD SEASON, there will be in it a worth above money and a beauty that art alone never gives.

I earnestly wish for you a "HEART OF CHEER"—"A SPIRIT OF HOPE"—"SEASONS OF PROSPERITY" and an ever-ending "SEASON OF HEALTH AND HAPPINESS."

Thanking you for many kind favors shown me in the past, I remain,
Your friend,

The taste is getting natural again.

If you have no habits, swear off anyway.

Mighty good time to get your swearing off clothes on straight.

Don't forget about the High School, and the Good Roads movement. They go hand in hand.

The price on whiskies in Montgomery has been cut till no one need stay sober for the luck of the stuff.

Another year is about to setp to the rear. And this has been a fairly good one, as Mr. Tuft will testify.

The man who never buys anything on a credit don't know for sure whether he has one or not but that don't bother him

Begin to think up the things you are going to do another year. Pick out the things you want written on that new leaf.

What a year's work some of us ought to be able to do, having had such good experience. We all feel like we can do better next time.

Just a day or two more to pay your taxes before they go by default, and the special collector will begin to make his year's salary. Pay and assess—they are around at the court house.

Everybody came home Christmas, and some of them will go back for a while, others will go back to stay—they think, but they too, will be back to stay, in the sweet after-while.

Girls, girls! Only three more days before leap year is over for some time. Lot of old bachelors hanging around, waiting to have the question put to them in a delicate tone of voice.

Express business is going back to the normal again. Now, but few corrugated pasteboard boxes are seen coming away from the office. Folks have gone to work.

On Friday, everything in Alabama is willing to give prohibition a show, except Mobile. Those whose duty it is to see that the law is respected will advise those people down on the Bay, to give her remarkable waters resources a free and impartial trial before taking anything stronger.

NEW CASTOR OIL.
 A German scientist found a way to produce castor oil, and get it down the unsuspicious, it being tasteless. It can be fed to the kid in his battered biscuit, in his oat meal, in his milk, and many a boy will leave the table hereafter, refreshed and feeling bully, but not knowing that he has been a patient. The American boy ought to rejoice at the new discovery, for he is the principal consumer of castor oil. If it were not for him, they would cease making it, or make it only for livery stable people to grease their buggies with.

A boy begins taking castor oil about two or three weeks after he begins taking things. The first dose is taken without much ado, for he can't afford to raise a row so soon among people he knows next to nothing about, and to whom he is hardly on speaking terms. When he has remained with the family long enough to get onto their curves, he is finally convinced that they are giving him the stuff just because they are the biggest, and can hold him. Naturally he conceives a mortal dread of the spoon, and the ever-soothing words, "Here, take this, now." The older he gets the further he can be heard when the infuriating time comes. He gets up a bigger row every time he sees the cork spoon coming his way. When he grows up and gets able to defend himself, and whip the half dozen folks who try to drench him, and run away, something just as good is substituted, and he wonders why that wasn't substituted at first. No grown people take care for oil, hardly. No little girls take it, for their nannies will fix up a pink portion instead of the axle grease, so it leaves the bulk of the stuff to be consumed by the boy.

A boy who has had his castor oil regular, though, usually is an obedient boy. He has enough whippings during this exercise to keep him in line on other things. The cautious mother always gets the oil, has it warm enough to run good, gets a wet rag to put to the face to hold the stuff down, and then as the last final preparation, gets a peach tree sprout. With this layout, my boy will walk right up and open his mouth.

We had to work a mile once that had to have his nose twisted every time you put a saddle blanket, a sack of corn, or anything else on his back. To save time, we got the twister first, an in time, he came to know what was required of him, and stood still, but he twister had to be handy. The castor oiled boy comes to that underdusting of his surroundings, and only one out of every hundred and ten thousand remembers till the next day what he took it for.

As soon as the powdered castor oil gets to this country, we want our enterprising druggists to get a ear load of it, and we'll advertise it for them, in the interest of the American boy.

DID A GOOD WORK.

The Elks stand for charity first. This is one of the best features of the order that the public can see. It is an order that spends money where money will do the most good toward relieving suffering. The day before Christmas, a committee was out at work delivering groceries to those who couldn't buy them, just like he delivery wagons from the grocery stores. On that wagon were men who made it their business to look up those in want, and they put off a sack of flour, a ham, some sugar a few pounds of lard, and some toys for the children, and left good cheer and plenty to eat for the holidays at least. They did a good work, and reached suffering humanity as it has never been reached in Dothan before.

YOUNG SOCIETY WOMEN WON'T BE WAITERS.

Taft Dinner Party Must Use Professionals.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 25.—Because the Maxwell dinner to President-elect Taft to-morrow night has assumed much larger proportions than was at first anticipated the request of the society young women who desired to act as waiters will have to be declined and the regulation hotel waiters will act.

Henry C. Maxwell who will be Mr. Taft's host, had acquiesced in the young women's request but the dinner party has made professional waiters necessary and the most unique feature of the dinner will have to be foregone.

POPE SEES VISION.
 Rome, Dec. 27.—The Italia publishes a report which has caused a sensation in ecclesiastical circles that Joan of Arc, recently appeared in a vision to the Pope and addressed to him solemn words of encouragement, exhorting his holiness to continue his present policy which she promises would shortly be crowned with triumph.

It was while the holy father was plunged in devout prayer and meditation in his private oratory immediately after the ceremony of reading the decree of beatification that the apparition appeared. It was noticed that when the Pope came out of the oratory he was very pale and during several days maintained a marked silence.

MARRIED.

On Christmas even night, W. H. Giles, engineer of the Dothan and St. Andrews road, and Miss Lizzie C. Trammell, of this city, were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. M. Craig, and took place at the Presbyterian Manse on N. Gates street.

We are pleased to see Del. J. R. G. Howell down to in his buggy again today, after being confined to his home indisposed for a number of days.

ANGUS AGREE TO JOIN THE NAVY.

Mr Angus Agree left yesterday for Pensacola, where he goes to enter Uncle Sam's navy, in the capacity of printer.

We hope he will succeed in getting what he wants, but to join the army or navy means a confinement which we imagine would grow irksome with its rounds of sameness and isolation from the outside world, and we should advise our young men to consider these facts well before leaving home for such service.

SEISMIC DISTURBANCES.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 27.—A dispatch from Virginia City, Mont., says that at 4:10 p. m. today that region was shaken by the severest of a series of many seismic disturbances that have been going on for more than a week.

The electric plant was put out of commission. This plant is ten miles from Virginia City, and as telephone communication is interrupted, the extent of the damage is not known.

The children of the city schools will have all this week for play, but will have to be ready to resume their books next Monday, January 4th.

Mr. F. B. Nealy, a traveling man who resided in Dothan last year, is in the city today shaking hands with his many friends here, and also interviewing our merchants who may in need of his goods.

C. B. Goldwather, Jr., of Troy, spent a few days in the city this week.

Mr. P. J. Thagard has resigned his position as Supt. of the City Water and Light plant.

THANKS THE ELKS.
 Mr. T. H. Grayson desires to extend his sincerest thanks to the Elks for their kindness to him. He has been unable to work for several months, and the donations in the way of provisions are in good time, and while he is not on the charity list, still, not being able to work, put his family in needy circumstances.

NEXT MONDAY'S ELECTION.

The road bond election will be held in this county next Monday, January 4th, one week from today. Don't forget to go to the polls and vote for good roads and better schools with longer terms. These two things we stand in great need of and all those who favor them should remember the day and be sure to vote.

Mr. J. K. Harris has returned from a two weeks tour in Southwest Alabama, where he has been selling fertilizers.

I desire to thank my many patrons for their trade during 1908, and wish to assure them that I appreciate their business, and hope to serve them equally well during the year 1909.

It will always be my aim to furnish the best in the way of fresh meats and fish.

Amoy, Dec. 27.—Ordens were issued Saturday to a number of natives at Tungan, twenty miles north of Amoy, to cease planting opium poppies. They declined to acquiesce and a riot followed in which one officer and ten civilians were killed.

The populace of Tungan is up in arms and 500 troops have been sent there to restore order. The authorities announce their intention to enforce the anti-opium edict.

AN ORDERLY CHRISTMAS.

People who love law and order cannot complain at any extra rowdiness manifested here during Christmas.

We never saw a more quiet, sober people than those of Dothan and all those coming in here; and the fact deserves more than passing notice—only a few less than half a dozen arrests were made by the police for disorderly conduct during Christmas times, and but little drinking was noticeable in any quarter.

We doubt very seriously if such commendable conditions prevailed in any other town of the state of the size of Dothan, to this extent, and all of our people should be thankful and feel very grateful that we live in such a sober law-abiding community.

We hope soon to see Christmas celebrated in a more appropriate way than has been the custom in the South heretofore, and from the record we have made during the past week, are encouraged to think the system is changing to a more appropriate way of celebrating this, our most important of Christian festivals.

$1,000 Reward

Freemont, (O.) News—$1,000 reward for any one that was not more than pleased with the Brush entertainment Friday night. He is witty, refined, and presents no stale tricks. They are all new. He keeps the audience in a continual uproar of wonderment and laughter. He is a wizzard indeed.

Cripple Creek, (Colo.) Star Mr. Brush mystified and delighted an appreciative audience by his startling and seemingly impossible feats of magic.

Keokuk, (Ia.) Daily Gate City The entertainment given by Brush was good and very well received.
